

Giuseppina Squicciarini re-elected as Chair of Energy Traders Europe Board

Brussels, 19.11.2024 – Energy Traders Europe announces the reappointment of Ms Giuseppina Squicciarini as Chair of the Energy Traders Europe Board.

At the Annual General Meeting (AGM) on 14 November, Ms Squicciarini, General Manager of Regulatory Affairs at Shell Energy Europe was re-elected for another year-long term as Chair. Ms Squicciarini is joined by Mr Cemil Altin, Head of Regulatory Affairs at EDF Trading, and Mr Luka Jazbec, Chief Sustainability Officer at GEN-I, who were also reappointed as Vice-Chairs of the Board at the AGM, for another year respectively.

Having first been elected to this position in November 2023, Ms Squicciarini has successfully acted as Chair throughout Energy Traders Europe's 25th anniversary year. Speaking after her re-election, she stated:

"I'm honoured that my colleagues have placed their confidence in me for another term. This is a crucial time for Europe, and for Europe's energy markets. With the new Commission set to take to their desks in the coming weeks, and the Clean Industrial Deal a priority on the political agenda, Energy Traders Europe remains committed to improving European competitiveness, enhancing energy security and driving cost-effective decarbonisation. Markets are central to revitalising European competitiveness and I believe the time is right for deeper market integration and further standardisation."

New Board structure

Following the update to the Energy Traders Europe byelaws, this year also sees a new structure for the Energy Traders Europe Board. Ten candidates were elected to the Board, five of which have a three-year mandate, with the other five having a two-year mandate.
