

Anje Stiers joins Energy Traders Europe as Chair of the Market Supervision Committee

Brussels, 11.03.2025 – Energy Traders Europe announces the appointment of Ms Anje Stiers as Chair of the Market Supervision Committee.

Ms Stiers joins the team from EEX, where she has been Head of the EU Representation Office since 2022, leading on their engagement with European institutions on financial, environmental and energy related matters. Prior to this, she spent almost a decade as a Financial Markets Legislation Expert at EEX. As part of her role at EEX, she also headed the Financial Markets Working Group of Europex, the association of European energy exchanges, as well as the REMIT Working Group. Ms Stiers holds Master's degrees in economics, strategic management and philosophy.

Speaking upon her appointment as Chair, she stated:

"I'm truly grateful for this opportunity and excited to work alongside the Energy Traders Europe membership and secretariat. With so much happening in Europe, this is a pivotal moment for European energy markets. I'm honoured to contribute to EU regulation that enables much-needed investments, while upholding the highest standards of market integrity."

Mark Copley, CEO of Energy Traders Europe added:

"On behalf of the whole association, I'd like to express my gratitude to Dr Karl-Peter Horstmann who chaired the Market Supervision Committee for more than 15 years and made a huge contribution. I know Anje will build on Karl-Peter's great work, while putting her own spin on things and refreshing our efforts in a vital area for competition and competitiveness."
