Brussels, 06/03/2026

Energy Traders Europe and the Slovakian Association of Energy Traders (ZDE) have signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) aimed at strengthening cooperation and promoting more open and efficient energy markets across Europe.

The partnership brings together organisations committed to transparency, efficiency, and well-functioning energy markets that benefit both consumers and businesses. By deepening collaboration, the two associations aim to amplify market voices and contribute to solutions that support Europe's evolving energy landscape.

Barbara Maria Lempp, Chief Operating Officer of Energy Traders Europe, commented:

"National and European associations must work together to keep markets strong. By partnering with ZDE, we can better hear market voices and help shape solutions to Europe's energy challenges. In Slovakia, traders face significant issues, and we are ready to tackle them together."
